EXPERIENCE

Java Trainee Techvanto Academy	July 2025
- Completed hands-on training in Core Java, object-oriented programming (OOP), JDBC, and GUI development using Swing. - Developed a fully functional ATM application as a capstone project, simulating real-world banking operations. - Implemented secure PIN-based authentication and integrated a MySQL database for reliable transaction processing. - Applied object-oriented design principles to build a modular, scalable, and maintainable application architecture.

PROJECTS

ATM Machine Simulation GITHUB	July 2025
(Java, Swing, JDBC, MySQL)
- Developed a GUI-based ATM application supporting core banking operations such as authentication, withdrawal, deposit, and balance enquiry. - Engineered a MySQL-backed system to handle real-time transaction processing with secure data management. - Designed a modular architecture using object-oriented principles to ensure scalability and maintainability. - Implemented transaction history and mini statement functionalities with timestamp-based logging for accurate record tracking.
Hospital Bed Optimization System GITHUB	April 2025
(Python, Linear Regression, Streamlit, SQL)
- Developed a Linear Regression model to estimate patient length of stay using severity and demographic features. - Enhanced bed allocation efficiency by ~20% through data-driven optimization of patient flow. - Designed and implemented an interactive Streamlit dashboard to monitor bed occupancy, patient admissions, and predicted stay duration in real time. - Integrated a SQL-based backend to manage dynamic admission and discharge data, ensuring consistency and real-time system updates.
